Sir,

Subject - Celebration of the "Victory Day" by the Municipal Councils of Sagar, Sorab, Hosanagara and Honnali respectively during the months of May and August 1945 - Proposals for Sanction of expenditure incurred by the Municipal Councils in this behalf

In forwarding herewith an original the *-marginally noted reports received from the Presidents of Honnali, Sorab, Hosanagara and Sagar Municipalities on the above subject, I have the honour to state as follows -

The Presidents of the marginally noted municipalities report that consequent on the Allied Victory against the Germans and the Japanese, the Municipal Councils referred to above made arrangements to celebrate the Victory Day during May and August 1945 respectively in their respective jurisdiction

It is reported that arrangements had been made to feed the poor and for distributing sweets to the school children on the occasion In addition to the grants sanctioned by Government in this respect, the local Municipal councils sanctioned the marginally noted amounts from out of their funds with a view to meet a portion of the charges incurred on the occasion of the celebration of the Victory Day

The Municipal Presidents concerned report that they have incurred the expenditure towards the purpose referred to above in anticipation of obtaining of sanction in pursuance of the resolutions passed by their respective Municipal Councils and in consideration of the importance of the function They request that their action in this respect might be got ratified

In the Circumstances I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to ratify the action of the Municipal Councils of Sagar, Sorab, Hosanagara and Honnali in having incurred expenditure as per details noted in para 3 supra in connection with the
